Padre's Piece

The Saints

St. Gabriel the Archangel

Feast Day: September 29th

The Patron Saint of messengers, telecommunication workers, postal workers

St. Gabriel is an angel who serves as a messenger for God to certain people. He is one of the three archangels. Gabriel is mentioned in both the Old and the New Testaments of the Bible. First, in the Old Testament, Gabriel appears to the prophet Daniel to explain his visions. Gabriel is described as, "one who looked like man," as he interprets Daniel's visions. He speaks to Daniel while he is sleeping. After Gabriel's first visit, Daniel becomes tired and sick for days. Gabriel later visits Daniel again providing him with more insight and understanding in an answered prayer.

In the New Testament, Gabriel, described as "an angel of the Lord," first appears to Zacharias, the father of John the Baptist. He tells him, "Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth." Luke 1:13.

After Elizabeth conceived and was six months pregnant, Gabriel appears again. The Book of Luke states he was sent from God to Nazareth to visit the virgin married to a man named Joseph. Gabriel said to Mary, "Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women." Luke 1:28.

The flowers at the crucifix are given for the Intentions of Fr. James Harper, by his parents.

The Blessed Virgin Mary's Floral Rosary is in memory of Jennifer Toplak given by a friend.

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

For a while the watchword was simple: “Don’t leave home without your cell phone.” But now there is a codicil: “You’ll need your GPS.” The letters stand for “Global Positioning System” a once military property that tells you not only where you are, but also how to get to somewhere else. It removes the fear of getting lost. I for one am grateful for this technology and the clever people who developed it. I do have to say that some of the technology available now urges believers to put restraint on certain technology that violates Christian moral teachings when it comes to some life issues. I’m glad to have a map and a voice to accompany it, but I and we must push back any technology that favors matters like abortion and euthanasia.

We read in Mark’s gospel today about a physically handicapped man living at a time with no technology at hand to bring healing from blindness. But Jesus brought complete healing. So now what should the man do? He decides to follow his healer on the way. “The way” at that time was the name our earliest Christian ancestors described their new religion. So, St. Mark brings a new dimension to the story. It changes from a “healing story” to a “call story.” In other words, the man didn’t just pick up his former lifestyle, that of an ordinary sighted person. This might have meant pursuing a career in a given field. No, what Bartimaeus decided on was to follow Jesus to wherever that led. Complete trust of the kind we poor sinners can only strive for in hope.

A detail we might miss but caught by certain commentators is the fact that the “garment” or “cloak” Bartimaeus threw away just may have been the cloth he used to spread before him to collect people’s offerings as they passed him.

It suggests that Bartimaeus was leaving behind “the old order.” That’s exactly what we’re called to do, for example, after we have made a good confession.

We first face the fact that every sin we commit, small or big, venial or mortal, involves a certain degree of temporary “blindness.” We had forgotten to see or chose not to see God’s way. “There are none so blind as those who will not see.” The wonderful Sacrament of Reconciliation, or Penance, or Confession (the names describe the same sacrament) is the cure. The Holy Spirit provides direction for us in our newly forgiven hearts and souls. Even before receiving the sacramental grace, we know the name of “the way.” We just need to recheck those directions we need to get there. I suggest here and now a new meaning for the letters “GPS,” namely: “God Provides for Sinners.” There’s an old hymn about that very truth that Bartimaeus would have liked:

“Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
that saved a wretch like me.
I once was lost and now am found,
Was blind but now I see.”

God love you and give you His peace.

Stocking the Shelves – Canned Goods

During the month of October, SVdP is asking for donations of the following supplies:

- Canned Goods
- Vegetables
- Fruits
- Beans
- Chunky-Style Soup
- Pasta & Jarred Sauce
- Cereal
- Peanut Butter
- Jelly

Throughout the month of November, we will be collecting new and used blankets (twin and full size) to assist Hope Rescue Mission as they strive to keep the homeless warm throughout the winter. See the flyer in today's bulletin for details.

Mark your calendars! St. Vincent de Paul has partnered with the Parish Nurses to offer a Health Fair on Sunday, November 10th. The fair will include blood pressure screenings, health information, a FREE continental breakfast, and the Miller-Keystone Blood Mobile! Two ways to give life-saving blood - schedule your bloodmobile time slot (check here in the coming weeks for the link needed) or simply stop by after Mass.

A Parishioner’s Prayer

My Parish is composed of people like me.
 I help make it what it is. It will be friendly, if I am.
 It will be holy, if I am.
 Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.
 It will do great work, if I work.
 It will be prayerful, if I pray.
 It will make generous gifts to many causes, if I am a generous giver.
 It will bring others to worship, if I invite and bring them.
 It will be a parish of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, of compassion, charity and mercy if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these same things.
 Therefore, with the help of God, I now dedicate myself to the task of being all things that I want my parish to be.
 Amen.

Special Collection for Hurricane Relief

The 2nd collection this weekend will be to aid in the recovery efforts following the devastating hurricanes in Florida.

The funds raised for this purpose will be administered through the Bishops’ Emergency Disaster Fund, which will work with Catholic Charities USA for the distribution of the monies. This is a cash collection; no special envelope will be provided. You may also scan the QR code to make an offering online with Parish Giving. Thank you!
